

Cookie Policy — New copy

Replaces: current `cookie-policy.html` body copy (from the H1 down to the contact block)

Also:

- Fix the "Download" button to link to a correctly-named cookie policy PDF (currently mis-links to `6476f2ed6421f48719b668b3_Reconciliation-2.pdf` which is a Webflow reconciliation asset, not a cookie policy)
- Generate a new PDF from this copy and save as `/assets/docs/Cookie-Policy-1.pdf`. Update the Download link accordingly.
- Ensure page title matches heading. Both should read `Cookie Policy` (not `Cookies Policy`).

Cookie Policy

This Cookie Policy applies to your use of this website.

Cookie Policy

Reacon Group Pty Ltd ACN 625 934 974 ("we", "us", "our") may use cookies, web beacons, tracking pixels and other tracking technologies when you visit our website www.reacongroupp.com, including any other media form, media channel, mobile website or mobile application related or connected to it (collectively, the "Website") to help customise the Website and improve your experience.

We reserve the right to make changes to this Cookie Policy at any time and for any reason. We will alert you about any changes by updating the "Last Updated" date of this Cookie Policy.

Any changes or modifications will be effective immediately upon posting the updated Cookie Policy on the Website. You are encouraged to periodically review this Cookie Policy to stay informed of updates. Your continued use of the Website after the date the revised Cookie Policy is posted will be deemed as acceptance of those changes.

Use of Cookies

A "cookie" is a string of information which assigns you a unique identifier that we store on your computer. Your browser then provides that unique identifier to us each time you submit a query to the Website. We use cookies on the Website to, among other things, keep track of services you have used, record registration information, record your user preferences, keep you logged into the Website, facilitate purchase procedures, and track the pages you visit. Cookies help us understand how the Website is being used and improve your user experience.

Types of Cookies

The following types of cookies may be used when you visit the Website:

- Advertising cookies
- Analytics cookies
- Our cookies

Advertising cookies

Advertising cookies are placed on your computer by advertisers and ad servers in order to display advertisements that are most likely to be of interest to you. These cookies allow advertisers and ad servers to gather information about your visits to the Website and other websites, alternate the ads sent to a specific computer, and track how often an ad has been viewed and by whom. These cookies are linked to a computer and do not gather any personal information about you.

Analytics cookies

Analytics cookies monitor how users reached the Website and how they interact with and move around once on the Website. These cookies let us know what features on the Website are working best and what features can be improved.

Our cookies

Our cookies are first-party cookies, and can be either permanent or temporary. These are necessary cookies, without which the Website will not work properly or be able to provide certain features and functionalities. Some of these may be manually disabled in your browser, but doing so may affect the functionality of the Website.

Personalisation cookies. Personalisation cookies are used to recognise repeat visitors to the Website. We use these cookies to record your browsing history, the pages you have visited, and your settings and preferences each time you visit the Website.

Security cookies. Security cookies help identify and prevent security risks. We use these cookies to authenticate users and protect user data from unauthorised parties.

Website management cookies. Website management cookies are used to maintain your identity or session on the Website so that you are not logged off unexpectedly, and any information you enter is retained from page to page. These cookies cannot be turned off individually, but you can disable all cookies in your browser.

Third-party cookies. Third-party cookies may be placed on your computer when you visit the Website by companies that run certain services we offer. These cookies allow the third parties to gather and track certain information about you. These cookies can be manually disabled in your browser.

Control of Cookies

Most browsers are set to accept cookies by default. However, you can remove or reject cookies in your browser's settings. Please be aware that such action could affect the availability and functionality of the Website.

For more information on how to control cookies, check your browser or device settings, or visit the following links:

You may also opt out of some third-party cookies through the Network Advertising Initiative's Opt-Out Tool.

Other Tracking Technologies

In addition to cookies, we may use web beacons, pixel tags and other tracking technologies on the Website to help customise the Website and improve your experience. A "web beacon" or "pixel tag" is a tiny object or image embedded in a web page or email. They are used to track the number of users who have visited particular pages and viewed emails, and to acquire other statistical data. They collect only a limited set of data, such as a cookie number, time and date of page or email view, and a description of the page or email on which they reside. Web beacons and pixel tags cannot be declined. However, you can limit their use by controlling the cookies that interact with them.

Privacy Policy

For more information about how we use information collected by cookies and other tracking technologies, please refer to our Privacy Policy posted on the Website. This Cookie Policy is part of and is incorporated into our Privacy Policy. By using the Website, you agree to be bound by this Cookie Policy and our Privacy Policy.
